

THE CHALLENGE OF DIVERSITY FOR UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

4 Quality Education 10 Reduced Inequalities 11 Sustainable Cities and Communities

Addressing DIVERSITY requires a qualitative and multidisciplinary understanding of its context beyond the Library's boundaries.

Research in Two Private Universities in Mexico

Grounded Context Pauses Theoretical Preconceptions

Undergraduate Students Speak Their Own Voices

"Concepts of diversity emerge from context, not from books"

"Understanding diversity is more than just increasing our collections"

Addressing Generalities

Qualities over Quantities

Prioritizing Particularities over General Representations

Understanding University beyond the Library

Challenges for Library Research

Constant Learning from Mistakes

Permanent Online Dialogue

Collaboration between Libraries

Tolerance to Frustration and Change

Reaching Agreements

Comparing Conditions & Approaches

Embracing a Common Research Logic

Mixed Methods

Leisure

Arts & Sports

Everyday Practices

Contrasting Data

Educational Background

Expanding Accessibility Based on Our Users

Structural Inequality

Cultural Richness

Native Languages

Life Stories

Embracing our Communities' Complexity

Challenges for Our Libraries

Reshaping Libraries from Local Grounded Diversities

Internal Migration

According to Real Practices

Designing Services & Spaces

Variety of Disciplines

Understanding Information Needs, Behaviors and Practices

Putting Learning at the Center

Linguistic Richness

IFLA WLIC 2019 Athens

Jorge Villalobos Padilla SJ Library
biblio.iteso.mx @bibliotecaiteso

Sergio O. Salazar-Robles
Gabriela Solano-Aguilar
Alfredo Cruz-Vázquez

Francisco Xavier Clavigero Library
bib.iberomex @bibliotecafxc

Alma B. Rivera-Aguilera
María C. Herrera Solís
Salvador Carrillo Moreno