

OCTAVIO TORRES

PORTFOLIO

Octavio Torres is a talented sculptor born in Guadalajara, Jalisco on October 10, 1974. Sculptor graduated from the School of Plastic Arts of the University Center of Art, Architecture and Design of the University of Guadalajara from 1994 - 1999. He also graduated as a restorer of movable goods in the school of conservation and restoration from 2005-2010. Octavio has a specialization in conservation of stone monuments made in Argentina and a diploma in Mexican art history.

Octavio's most important exhibitions have been at the museum of the National Ceramic Prize in Tlaquepaque, Jalisco. He participated in Gallery Weekend in Mexico City with an exhibition entitled "Motor of Impulse" and also participated in the Biennial of the Arts in Havana, Cuba (year).

He works with materials such as wood, clay or metal creating medium to large scale figures. He seeks to imprint personality to each of his pieces. He pays homage to the figure of the woman in his works for her femininity and the subtlety of her silhouette. Her permanent dialogue and rapport with sculpture is reflected in the spontaneity, lightness and freshness of her work. His figures in flight reflect the idealism with which he conceives his creations, which he transmits and transmits to the viewer. His classic faces are reinterpreted with a modern vision that seeks to capture the new generations.
